Chapter 1 by Totally Olive

Staring at the headstone, Olivia held back a sob. A shiver ran down her spine. She wasn't sure if it was the cool autumn day or the memory of what had happened to her best friend. "This shouldn't have happened" she said out loud to herself. She remembered the accident like it was yesterday.

It was a warm summer day and Emily and Olivia decided to go out on a drive. They got into Emily's blue convertible that she had just gotten it for her birthday. They started driving and Emily got a text and decided to answer it.

"Emily don't text and drive" Olivia said

"I know I know"

Emily wasn't paying attention to the oncoming red light and continued texting. Then a semi truck pulled forward

"Emily! Watch out!"

They ended up crashing into that Semi Truck. Olivia walked away with severe injuries but none life threatening, but Emily was dead at the scene.

"It should have been me, I'm so sorry Emily" She turned to walk home.
